Clár Scrúdaithe Syllabus of Examination

1. QUALIFICATIONS FOR ENTRY

The examination is open to persons who are 20 years of age or over at the date of application and are acceptable to An Coimisiún as candidates and have been recommended by a registered adjudicator or teacher (see paragraph 2 below).

All candidates must have completed Grades 1 through to 12 to be eligible to take the TCRG examination. Each candidate will be required to submit proof of having taken all twelve grades. This documentation must be submitted with the application.

2. COMPETENCY AND SUITABILITY

An applicant must submit with his or her application a recommendation by any registered teacher or adjudicator testifying that the certifier knows the applicant, is satisfied that he or she can perform the required dances for the practical dancing test to a reasonably good standard and knows of no reason why the applicant should not be suitable and acceptable as a registered teacher.

3. DATES OF EXAMINATION

Examinations usually take place in Ireland, UK, USA, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand when requested, provided the projected number of candidates, in the opinion of the Udarás Scrúdaithe (Examination Authority), justifies examinations being held. The Authority, following consultation with the regional authorities decides the dates and venues of examinations. These dates and venues are then publicised by the Examination Authority.

4. APPLICATIONS AND FEES

Applications with full fees must be made online. Online applications are available for specific exams at www.clrg.ie. Applications will not be accepted if full fee is not included. The application form must be fully completed after carefully reading this syllabus and enclosures in full. Full fees must be paid by credit card only. Details of examination dates, venues, date of applications opening, will be made available online with sufficient notice for all applicants to gather the relevant forms, etc. to complete the application.

5. WITHDRAWALS AND FORFEITURE OF FEES

- (1) Where a candidate, having been accepted for examination, withdraws the application three months or more prior to the examination date 50% of the examination fee will be forfeited.
- (2) Candidates who withdraw applications between three months and the date of the examination, or who fail to attend, will forfeit the full fee.
- (3) Failure to attend, or late withdrawal, may result in candidates being disqualified from taking or retaking the examination for a period decided by the Examination Authority.
- (4) The periods referred to in sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, will be determined by the date on which notice of withdrawal is received by An Coimisiún, the Examination Authority or the examination organiser.

6. SECTIONS OF EXAMINATION

1. The examination consists of six sections as follows:
 - a. practical test in step dancing
 - b. written céilí dancing test
 - c. practical test in teaching céilí dancing
 - d. practical test in teaching step dancing
 - e. written music test
 - f. oral Irish language test (optional if candidate lives outside Ireland).
2. All required sections must be attempted at the same examination (subject to the exception relating to the Irish language test in the case of persons living outside Ireland).
3. The requirements of each section are set out in detail in paragraphs 11-16 below.

7. REPEAT EXAMINATION

- Where a candidate achieves less than 50% in any section of the examination all sections must be repeated. Unsuccessful candidates achieving 50% or more in any section(s) of the examination on the 1st attempt may repeat the section(s) in 2nd and 3rd attempts.
- 4th and subsequent examination attempts will require all sections of the examination to be repeated.
- A candidate, who has not completed the full examination within 5 years of the 1st attempt, must repeat the full examination. Candidates must repeat the FULL examination on each and every unsuccessful attempt up to and including six attempts.
- Because of the infrequency of examinations in Australia and New Zealand, the provisions of this sub-paragraph may be varied at the discretion of An Coimisiún.
- Six (6) months must elapse before a candidate may retake any section of the examination. The date for calculating the six-month period shall be as of the last date of the previous exam weekend (usually Sunday). This will allow ample time to prepare properly.
- The maximum number of attempts at this exam is six.

8. REGULATIONS

1. In the written céilí dancing test and in the music test
 - a. Candidates are not permitted to use or have on their desks or tables any papers, books, notebooks, smartphones, smartwatches, tablets, other than the answer papers (which may also be used for rough work) and the céilí question paper handed out by the examiners in charge. Neither may a candidate use any electronic aids in lieu of written notes, etc. The making of carbon copies of answer papers is not allowed.
 - b. During these sections any conversation or other contact between candidates is strictly forbidden.
 - c. Any rough work, diagrams, cancelled answers etc. made during these sections cannot be retained by the candidates but instead must be either handed up to an examiner (but will not of course be considered in the marking of candidates' papers) or alternatively torn up in the presence of an examiner and placed in a receptacle provided for the purpose.
 - d. Candidates are not permitted to leave the examination room and return unless with the permission of, and accompanied by, a supervising official.
2. The examination supervisors may at their sole discretion immediately disqualify from an examination any candidate adjudged guilty by them of any breach of the foregoing regulations in sub-paragraph (1) above.

3. Candidates take the examination at their own risk. Where a person suffers from a physical illness or disability, or is pregnant, allowance cannot be made for such illness, disability, or condition in sections of the examination, which require physical effort and where in some circumstances a candidate might be placed at risk. Where a candidate suffers from an illness or handicap or is pregnant and still wishes to proceed with the examination, he or she must indicate accordingly in the appropriate section of the application form. A medical certificate acceptable to the Examination Authority must be furnished indicating the nature of the illness, handicap or condition and certifying whether the applicant's medical adviser is satisfied that the applicant can take the practical sections of the examination as described by the applicant to the certifier without risk to himself or herself (see application form). Such information will be treated with total confidentiality. The final decision as to whether a candidate is allowed to participate in an examination lies with the examiners. Failure to disclose an illness, incapacity or pregnancy may, if it later comes to light, result in the candidate concerned being permanently disqualified from taking any Coimisiún examination in the future.

8. RESULTS

1. The examination results will be e-mailed. Shortly thereafter, all candidates will receive the official result sheet showing the marks achieved in each section. Unsuccessful candidates will also receive details on each failed section. This will be the only communication a candidate will receive, directly or indirectly, in relation to the results of the examination. An Coimisiún, the Examination Authority or individual examiners will not enter into any further correspondence or discussion with a candidate or with anyone else acting on the candidate's behalf regarding an examination result.
2. The decision of the examiners concerning any candidate's result, when confirmed by the Examination Authority, is final.

9. AMENDMENTS TO EXAMINATION DOCUMENTATION

Examination fees change from time to time, as do also the fees to repeat separate sections of the examination. These, together with other information relating to examination dates and venues, amendments to this syllabus and other relevant data, are posted on CLRG website. Intending applicants must therefore ensure that the examination syllabus they have is the up-to-date version of that document.
